Dear Friends and Colleagues:

It is my great pleasure to write this letter in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary celebration of the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights. It is a wonderful milestone to mark 50 years of service to the people of the Commonwealth.

This is a very historic moment, and I am proud to be a part of it. Since its passage in 1966, the Kentucky Civil Rights Act had a profound effect in protecting citizens against discrimination in employment, public accommodations, housing, and financial transactions based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, familial status and tobacco smoking status.

I believe the original act of 1966 will continue to have a positive impact on the future. I extend my sincere best wishes on a successful and memorable Golden Anniversary celebration.

Sincerely,

Darryl Owens
